The dissertation shows that by recovering Dewey's religious naturalism, full of ecological insight and relevance, a new paradigm for philosophy of religion can be discerned, one that promises to bring philosophy of religion's core problems and methods in line with the most up-to-date scientific developments.

John Dewey and an ecological philosophy of religion

John Dewey (/ 'du:i /; October 20, 1859 – June 1, 1952) was an American philosopher, psychologist, and educational reformer whose ideas have been influential in education and social reform. He is regarded as one of the most prominent American scholars in the first half of the twentieth century.
